

Smith County Master Gardener

2024 Annual From Bulbs to Blooms Conference & Bulb Sale

October 19, 2024
9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Online shopping opens 10/07/24

Pollard United Methodist Church
3030 New Copeland Rd, Tyler, TX

Featuring hard to find heritage, hardy and locally trialed bulbs, and a variety of trees and shrubs (quantities are limited - order early online)

This year's speaker has been dubbed "The Bulb Hunter" by the New York Times. CHRIS WIESINGER is a renowned author, avid bulb collector, and the owner of the Southern Bulb Company (featured in the New York Times, Southern Living, and House and Garden). Chris speaks to gardening groups throughout the country about his love of heritage bulbs that are difficult to find in the marketplace, and how to care for and incorporate them into the garden. Some of his heritage bulbs will be sold at the conference only (not available during the online shopping event).

Limited seating - free admission

Door prizes, raffle tickets, garden art, books, and more onsite bulb shopping

Schedule

10/07/24 - Webstore opens
10/16/24 - Webstore closes

10/19/24

9:00 am - 10:00 am Conference (free admission)
10:00 am - 1:00 pm - Order pick up & shopping

Proceeds benefit Smith County Master Gardener Association scholarships and educational projects.
Smith County Master Gardeners are volunteer educators certified and coordinated by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service.

www.txmg.org/smith/events
903-590-2994 or 903-590-2980

For more info
& webstore link
SCAN HERE

