Weekly Summary

Compared to last week's market, the front-end classes of both feeder steers and heifers ended mostly steady with last week's figures. The plainer end however of all weight classes of both feeder steers and heifers met buyer resistance and dropped several dollars. Buyers mainly opted for animal quality but did take the plainer classes at lower demand figures. The need for ground beef continues its seasonally strong demand as slaughter cows and bulls ended $3 to $5 higher.

As we enter the mid-summer, the market is no doubt on solid ground. Strong demand and lower feeder inventory continue to astonish even the market analysts with the figures never witnessed.

COMMENTS

Very strong market today on most all classes of cattle. Your lightest weight grazers could see gains of over 15 dollars per hundred! As the summer heat creeps in and our backgrounding buyers start combating health issues, we would finally see the gap between plainer or lesser quality cattle take a leap. QUALITY is King, followed by castration in bulls and properly backgrounded heifers. Stock cows would be mostly steady with a softer undertone. Packer cows and bulls OUTSTANDING! Thank you to all our buyers and sellers for a great week! Bigger thanks to our men and women for allowing us to celebrate Independence Day! NO SALE NEXT WEEK, July 3rd!
