Order Buyers: 18 Weekly Summary

Packer Buyers: 7

Compared to last week's market, all feeder steers and heifers weight class averages ended from $4 to $8 lower. The slaughter cows weakened by $4 but the slaughter bull figures remained firm.

We are witnessing some market adjustment as there is a major heat dome covering much of the US creating health problems for newly purchased feeder calves. Buyers are cautious in their purchases as prices are too high to lose any animals due to heat related death losses. The weaker cow slaughter figures are reflecting the "dog days of summer" as outside grilling has slowed down and money being targeted for the upcoming school year expenses.

NEXT WEEK WILL BE OUR JULY SPECIAL WEANED SALE-PLEASE CALL NOTIFY US BY FRIDAY FOR PLACEMENT AND YOUR CALVES DELIVERED BY 3:00 SUNDAY AFTERNOON

COMMENTS

Week after week we see these prices hang on a little longer. This weeks honorable mention would go to the front end quality heifers that at times would bring the same price as their brothers! Not so long ago a heifer would be 30 dollars back. Fall bred cows are still pretty smokey with a little dip in pair cows having small baby calves. We appreciate everyone on both ends of the market and will see y'all next week.
